Description

Very beautiful and rare brass lamp from the Jean Perzel workshops, original model from the Art Deco period around 1930. It is composed of two parts, the cylindrical lampshade, beveled, fits onto the top of the foot. It is missing the two white sandblasted glasses, normally fixed on the inside of the lampshade and the two Bakelite switches on the rounded base of the foot. I report 2 or 3 small dents without gravity. Restoration is required for this exceptional light fixture.
