

French Louis Philippe Cabinet In Solid Walnut, Mid 19th Century

1 150 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Walnut

Length : 120 cm (47,24 in)

Height : 212 cm (83,46 in)

Depth : 57 cm (22,44 in)

Description

French cabinet Louis Philippe in solid walnut, mid 19th century. This very elegant cabinet opens to two doors. It reveals three fixed shelves. It can be transformed into a hanging clothes. The depth of the furniture lends itself to it. It is possible to store dishes or clothes since these same shelves have been cleaned thanks to a preventive biological treatment avoiding any smell therefore entirely natural. The door has a lock with its own key. The entrance made in wood. The key is in working condition. The trunk of the tree was used to make the doors. Thus, the knots are visible from outside as well as from inside. This furniture is made from quality materials and built using ancient techniques: tenons and mortises weld the pieces of wood together and strengthen the strength. The base of the cabinet rests on four very

Dealer

Antiquités Guideau

Meubles XVIII, XIX, XXème siècle

Mobile : 0680725502

Rue de la Corderie

Saint-Clément-de-la-Place 49370

stable feet. The two back feet are straight, the two front feet are so-called « pistolet ». The cornice is called « à doucine ». This type of furniture became fashionable in the nineteenth because of its sobriety but also due to the development of bastides. This piece of furniture was very often the result of a particular order. It is a piece of furniture of character. It is useful in a bedroom, living room. Functional, with the right proportions, the cabinet will naturally find its place in our modern homes. Its timeless aspect makes you want to keep the best of the past and enrich its history by settling into your home. In turn, you will bring your life story puzzle piece. You will highlight it by playing with its lines. To try it is to adopt it !