Description

A view of the gallery of battles in the Palace of Versailles by Léopold Delbeke. These views are one of his specialties. The palace acquired one on the occasion of the signing of the Treaty of Versailles and the Reims Museum another. The perspectives are masterfully mastered and he excels in lighting his works in a contrasting manner. The view is the back of the great hall of battles where a beautiful collection of busts stands.Oil on canvas, one piece on the back without gravity Léopold Delbeke, born June 30, 1866 in Paris where he died in 1939.
