Description

Very beautiful Regency style bookcase in walnut and rosewood veneer. This is a fairly rare model, very richly inlaid in the style of Thomas Hache's productions in Grenoble. The sides are in rosewood veneer, the large doors inlaid in walnut and rosewood with old glass. The entire piece of furniture is decorated with sumptuous, very richly chiseled gilded bronzes. The cornice in a gendarme's hat with a very beautiful bronze mascaron in the center of the upper crosspiece. New shelves in solid acacia have been installed (5 in total), allowing for a large shelving of books or objects (124 cm * 30 cm x 5) This bookcase can be dismantled by lag screws, which facilitates both delivery and installation. Some veneer jumps, fillings and marquetry repairs. Period late 19th century around 1860-1880. Delivery
