Material : Porcelain

Description

Description:

painted porcelain enameled and gilded.

These important and spectacular vases belong to the rare production of the Paris workshops around 1840.

The shape is inspired by the antique, with a wide base and a bulbous belly. The background is matte black, guilloche gilding rings with agate adorn the neck and base. Antique battle scenes as well as warriors in shiny enamel on the matte black background are of astonishing quality. The two handles with a complex design (nails, acanthus, days ...) are gilded and in a lapi lazuli tone.

A frieze of oak branches surrounds the neck. This is probably a commissioned work, which although bold is not kitsch, the quality of the
