Description

Very large framed acrylic and posca painting on canvas, "Cohabitation" seen by RED DITO (Contemporary artist) Red Dito, painter born in 1971. In his painting, no codes, no rules, everything is possible, visual cues no longer exist. Space and time are invented, he deconstructs and recomposes stories in his own way. Red dito's strength is sending positive vibes and his optimism through his works. "I like my painting to do good to others as it does to me" He works more particularly in mixed media on large formats. The glass half empty for Red Dito will not exist on his canvases. His universe will always transport you towards the positive, optimism, it is the strength of his creations. For several years, he has been doing galleries, exhibitions, art fairs, TV shows, sales at the Hôtel
