Description

Rare pair of baluster vases in Paris porcelain. If the model is classic, with a polychrome background with antique decoration and a very beautiful gilding, our vases are differentiated from the current and common quality by these remarkable "jabots" crowns of flowers in biscuit of an extreme finesse. Empire work or early Restoration, years 1810-1820. The vases are presented here and offered associated with a pair of bases in red Verona marble on a counter base in white marble. (Italian work of the 20th century in the neoclassical taste.) Beautiful collector's model, a very refined production ideal to complete a decoration of the Empire or early 19th century, here made even more spectacular presented on ocle Our vases are in a remarkable state of freshness, superb gilding burnished with
