Description

superb Alacena or Spanish pantry from the 19th century in pitchpin

This traditional 4 door where used in the kitchens of large Spanish fincas

4 doors composed of a solid lower part and an open upper part in order to place the food and three drawers

Paneled sides typical of Spanish furniture a fine work of molding and sculptures on the drawers as well as on the doors.

Very beautiful work on the two upper doors which must have represented a monstrous work piece with a lot of charm superb of quality
