Description

Exceptional Louis XVI commode in the Etruscan Taste. Made of flamed maple, original ebonized pear wood and brass. Original mounts, locks and Carrara marble plate. France around 1790. H: 94 cm, W: 128 cm, D: 63. The classical design and the combination of colours refer to the "goût étrusque", a fashion trend in architecture and interior design that has its origin in the archaeological finds of Greek vases in the second half of the 18th century and their later publication in the famous work "Collection Of Etruscan, Greek And Roman Antiquities From The Cabinet Of The Honble. Wm. Hamilton".
