Description

Oil on canvas by the painter Guy Combrisson representing Pierrot. This work is a preparatory canvas for a more important painting in which we see Pierrot holding out his hand to a dancer in the middle of a circus. The work is signed and in good condition, except for a few slight cracks visible in the photos. GUY COMBRISSEON (1905-1991) Biography: Born in Varenne sur Allier (Allier) 1905-1991 Student of Lucien Simon and Paul Quinsac. Exhibitor at the Salon des Artistes Français. This artist, heir to the great colorful compositions of Lucien Simon, distinguished himself in a tender and affectionate register towards the subjects he tackles. Several paintings, with the circus as their theme, gave rise to numerous studies in pencil or oil. Dimensions: 33/41 cm or 42 / 49 cm with the frame Shipping
