Description

Lake Landscape with Ruins and Figures 18th Century Venetian School Antonio Diziani (Venice 1737-1797) workshop Oil on canvas Very good condition Canvas measures 126 x 63 frame 133 x 70 Spectacular landscape of elongated shape very articulated in the most tradition typical Venetian The range of soft colors, accentuated luminosity, chiaroscuro and shades to create movement and depth are characteristic of the Venetian landscape. The idyllic atmosphere and the elegant description of the lake villages lead us to the imaginative production of the Venetian Antonio Diziani and his workshop. The large size and elongated format of the painting allowed the author to create a scene of great effect. The work is part of a couple and the second canvas has the same pictorial characteristics and the same
