Description
-------------

Oil on canvas depicting a rocky coast plunging into the sea, probably the Mediterranean. The work is painted on an unprepared canvas, which gives interesting material effects, accentuating the harshness of the landscape. Beautiful play of light on the surface of the water and on the rocks.

Work signed lower right.

It is offered in a modern wooden frame, with cracking effects.

On the back, we can see that the canvas has been glued to a sheet of thin cardboard, probably to limit deformations.

Work visible at the gallery (07240).
