Description

Glazed ceramic box with floral decoration by Mithé Espelt from the 60s and 70s. Very pretty jewelry box created by this famous designer in the middle of the 20th century and listed in her catalog. Note the excellent general condition and the presence of its natural, unpelted wooden box. Very beautiful contrast of colors on the lid creating a very cheerful atmosphere representative of these years. Collector's and decorative item. Possibility of sending to France and around the world by secure and insured package. Invoice and certificate provided.
