Description

A rare and discreet artist, it is the city of Cagnes that highlights his work with an exhibition at the Renoir Museum in 2021 (Meeting Ferdinand Deconchy, painter and friend of Renoir). Since his youth he frequented Monet and later Renoir when he settled in Cagnes on his advice. He was mayor of Cagnes from 1912 to 1919. Painter of landscapes mainly from the south of France but his travels were an opportunity to execute views of Brittany, Normandy, Mexico, North Africa. For more information, the Renoir Museum exhibition catalog is online. Our painting is an illustration of his research on the light of this "sensitive landscaper". Wear on the edges.
