Description

Vase in marbled glass paste and enameled with fine gold from the end of the 19th century in the art nouveau style. Very pretty vase in excellent condition with a very beautiful decoration of foliage and a bird in fine gold on the vase in relief. Piece entirely in the spirit of Ernest Baptiste Leveille or Legras Montjoye. Note the quality of the whole in this piece at the beginning of art nouveau and at the beginning of glass production in the late 19th century and early 20th century. Possibility of sending in France and around the world by secure and insured package. Invoice and certificate provided.
