Office stool, France, circa 1880, in gilded beech. This rare rectangular office chair in richly carved and gilded wood is characteristic of the "Greek" style. It has a frieze of posts framed by a row of pearls on the belt and on the side crosspieces. It rests on four tapered fluted legs with asparagus ending in laurel leaves; in the upper part, the legs are decorated with oves. At the back, the seat consists of a low curved backrest decorated with a frieze of heart stripes. A similar stool is kept at the Musée des Arts décoratifs in Paris.
