Description

Stained Ironwood Sculpture of Goddess Saraswati. Ironwood is very dense and hard. The Hindu goddess of knowledge and arts, especially music, Sarasvati is originally the personification of the sacred river of the same name. This divine goddess removes all obstacles to learning and grants her devotees knowledge. She is a wonderful source of strength for students seeking to learn. In fact, Saraswati is the deity of material knowledge and spiritual wisdom. Saraswati has four hands that correspond to the four aspects of the human personality in learning: intellect, alertness, mind and ego.
