Description

Pierre Chartron (?? - 2013) - Pastel on Paper - Trawler in the Water Pastel on paper representing a trawler in the water This is probably the port of Collioure since the artist had his studio there Signed lower right Dated 1990 Pierre Chartron is a painter born in the 20th century and died in 2013. In 1968, Pierre Chartron was selected to participate in the first Algiers Biennale, along with Richard Ascione and two other Algiers artists. This exhibition allowed the artist to meet other painters and discover new artistic trends, which certainly influenced his work later on. Pierre Chartron became friends with Raymond Salés, another painter from Collioure. In 2012, an exhibition of artists' drawings was organized in Nice, in which the works of several artists were presented, including Pierre Chartron. This
