Description

Rare painted panel depicting Pulcinella. Pulcinella is the most popular character in the commedia dell'arte. But he only has the name in common with the Neapolitan "Pulcenella". Pulcenella is a key character in Neapolitan popular culture with a thousand facets who exorcises his existential anxieties. And Naples is very present on our panel: Already Vesuvius, Vomero, Castel dell'Ovo etc. The panel has its original frame and has never been unframed. It is difficult to determine the type of painting: Is it oil, tempera or a mixed technique? It is in good general condition and patinated by time. It is likely that it decorated a public place, e.g. a café in Naples.
