

Celadon Glazed Lotus Dish - China 18th Century Qianlong Period

2 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 29,5cm

Description

Porcelain dish with incised lotus decoration. The border is decorated with Greek friezes, the centre is incised with a lotus flower. The brown heel is unglazed.

On the reverse, a Qianlong mark.

China XVIII E

Qianlong period (1736-1795)

Diameter: 29.5cm

There are several variations of this dish, both with celadon enamel in different shapes, notably in the form of a chrysanthemum with a lobed rim, and also in a glaze known as 'moonlight'.

For a model with an identical glaze and heel, see :
- Christies, The Art of Chine, 21 July 2016, Lot 2

Dealer

Galerie Drake

Chinese Porcelain & Chinese Works of Art

Mobile : 0689483023

Paris 75011

Provenance :

- L. Michon, Paris

Very good condition, wear to the glaze in places, and scratches from use.

More information and photos on request.