Description

- Pair of sky blue painted wooden obelisks, Italian work from the 20th century.

The contours of the obelisks and their edges are elegantly highlighted with a white border, thus offering a happy colorful contrast. They rest on four small white spheres, accentuating their slender shape and giving them a certain lightness, before resting on a square base whose faces are each decorated with a flower. - A second similar pair is also available to form a set of four obelisks.
