Description

Very elegant and large ewer in solid Italian silver.

The ewer rests on a pedestal highlighted with a frieze of water leaves and pearls.

The ovoid body is in plain silver from which a large handle is born whose ends are decorated with scrolls.

The neck is marked at its base with a frieze with the same decoration as that of the foot.

The ewer is hallmarked:

. Goldsmith's hallmark to be identified, poorly struck: 11(?) MI

. Title hallmark for silver 800/°°

Very beautiful ewer, with a slender and very elegant shape.
