Industrial Lamp Brianne Brisson Berges Company

400 EUR

Signature : Brisson, Berges et compagnie

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Opale

Description

Rare factory suspension from the industrial lighting company Brisson, Berges et Compagnie. The suspension is in the form of a large opaline ball fixed on a circular brass base. The model presented is called "Lampe Brianne". It is entirely engraved in capital letters with the name of the model and the names of the company. We will note the presence of 2 original holes. Period 1900 Very good condition diameter 33cm Brianne lamps by Brisson Berges et Compagnie are associated with industrial lighting production at the beginning of the 20th century, mainly in the 1900s. They were distinguished by robust technologies and designs, adapted to the needs of industry and commerce at a time when electric lighting was taking off. The company Brisson Berges et Cie, founded in France, manufactured

Dealer

Connected Antiquités-Décoration
Généraliste
Mobile : 0611331170

Chemin des precheurs
Marsillargues 34590

industrial lighting systems, with robust lamp and lighting models intended for workshops, factories and other industrial environments. They were often used in environments where powerful and long-lasting light was required. Brianne lamps are particularly renowned for their quality and reliability.