Description

Six-tune music box, by (Ducommun Girod), dating from the mid-19th century. Brass and steel movement, restored in our workshops, with a 27.3 cm cylinder, playing six tunes. Very beautiful marquetry case with a decoration of flowers, birds, and musical instruments. Very good working condition, with its key. It seems that this box never had a map of the airs? No trace on the inside of the lid. I remain at your disposal for any additional information or photos.
