Description

A fabulous pair of 19th century Napoleon III carved wooden side chairs, each with a delicate spindle back and ornately shaped top rail. The seats are plush and comfortable, resplendent in buttoned blue leather and neatly secured all round with a brass nailhead trim. The chairs rest on turned and gently flared legs, which are joined by horizontal spacers on all sides. Full of old world charm, these chairs would make a fine and very elegant addition to any interior.
