Description

Seated Buddha in Painted and Gilded Wood
Dhyana Mudra The Buddha is shown here sitting in the "Dhyana Mudra" posture: the hands rest on the knees, palm up, with the tip of the thumb touching the tip of the index finger to form a circle, symbolizing unity and harmony. This is the traditional meditation posture in Buddhism and Hinduism. This late 19th-early 20th century piece is entirely hand-carved in a single piece. This representation is typical of Siam and Myanmar. The details are very rich and we can distinguish a bright red patina and the other brown. Free and insured shipping in mainland France.
