Description

This superb wall lamp is a true masterpiece from the first half of the 20th century, demonstrating exceptional craftsmanship in carved wood and finely gilded with gold leaf. It draws heavily from the rich and opulent Baroque style, with an elongated design, intricate scrolls and curves that gracefully rise upwards. The fixture is composed of three ornate iron arms that elegantly support the bulbs, providing abundant illumination and casting a warm, inviting light that enhances the ambiance of any wall it adorns. This magnificent wall lamp, with its trio of lamps, not only provides practical lighting but also serves as a decorative focal point enriching the aesthetic appeal of the room. The electrical system has been completely redone for safety and functionality, making this piece not only a historical treasure
