Description

Antique fireplace with its trumeau, Louis XV period, in stone. Slightly moving lintel, sculpted with a central cartouche, leaves and shells, hearth line worked in curves and counter-curves. Finely sculpted trumeau in its center with flowers arranged in falls in a decor of molded frames. Flanking pilasters decorated with foliage, elegant cornice with projections and recesses. Every detail of this fireplace evokes the refinement specific to the 18th century. Attracting the eye and captivating the imagination, it will fit harmoniously into a large interior.
