

Silver Cutlery With Renaissance Inspiration

1 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Length : 20 cm

Description

Very fine and décorative silver cutlery in the style of the Renaissance, including a spoon, a fork and a knife, the fork and the blade are made of steel. the twisted silver handles are partially enamelled and topped with a bust of a man for the knife, a woman for the fork and a child for the spoon. Mr. Klaus Marquardt presents a similar set under the number 558, with the indication: Vienna? 4th quarter of the 19th century in his catalog book published by the publisher Arnoldsche.Or possibly England circa 1860, according to another expert opinion ?total Weight is 130 gr.

Dealer

Laurent Oïffer-Bomssel

Fine objects and Collector's objects...

Mobile : +33 6 80 15 84 82

22 rue de Beaune

Paris 75007