Description

This sumptuous and refined dining room is an iconic example of Art Deco style. Highlighting exceptional work in lemon wood and marquetry. The hexagonal table (covered with beveled protective glass), extendable using extensions (removable and stored in the table under the top), offers generous space to accommodate up to 10 guests. The chairs, with an elegant and refined design, are covered in green fabrics, adding a subtle pop of color that contrasts with the precious woods used in the marquetry. The sideboard is a six-drawer model with a central door, providing practical storage space. Above the central door, shelves and a tabernacle in the center add an architectural dimension to the room, emphasizing the harmony of shapes and lines characteristic of the Art Deco
