Description

Discover this remarkable thuja root coffee table, with a brutalist style.The top is made from carefully selected slices of wood, showcasing the natural veins and warmth of the thuja.The massive base, also in slices of root, fits perfectly into this raw and organic aesthetic, reminiscent of natural shapes.This piece, a true brutalist work, will appeal to lovers of furniture with a strong and authentic character, where beauty lies in the simplicity and imperfection of natural materials. Ideal for a contemporary or rustic interior, it combines robustness with the raw elegance of wood.This coffee table is in perfect condition with only a small burn on the top (to be taken back or accepted) and visible in the photos and ready to integrate into your interior. - General conditions of sale - If possible,
