Description

Small half-moon console table called "between two" due to its small dimensions, from the Louis XVI period in satin opening with a central drawer and 2 small side doors. It rests on 4 tapered turned legs highlighted at the top by pearled rings in gilded bronze and ending with gilded bronze sabots also pearled. Console topped with white Carrara marble surrounded by an openwork and gilded bronze gallery. Gilded bronzes, locks, key and gilded lock entries from the period. Console in perfect condition and revarnished with a tampon.
