

Empire Period Mahogany Console Attributed To The Jacobs

2 400 EUR

Signature : Jacob

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Mahogany

Length : 131

Height : 97

Description

Elegant Empire period console in mahogany and mahogany veneer, mounted on oak, on plinth, with three levels of shelves, the front and rear uprights with square section, black marble top, the field below the marble on the frame of the console is veneered with mahogany, proof of high quality of finish! This elegant and sober Empire period console is attributed to the great Jacob dynasty and to Jacob -Desmalter 1770 1841, we find this "kind" of constructions in similar models of his production This console is presented in its "juice" leaving the house, possibility of restoring it in our workshop on estimate very elegant model!

Dealer

Galerie Etienne Thuriet

Mobilier, Objets d'art et décoration XVIIIe et XIXe

Tel : 02.37.22.73.90

Mobile : 06.13.61.34.95

41-43, rue des Changes

Chartres 28000