Description

Small Mahogany Guéridon or flying table, Kidney shape, Louis XVI style. Work from the end of the 19th century, beginning of the 20th century. Sober and refined, it has an intact Brèche D'Alep marble top, which is set in a gallery of gilded brass, openwork. Its curved and sculpted base is joined by a crotch shelf in mahogany veneer, and it too is set in a gallery of finely chiseled gilded brass. Beautiful condition of discovery.
