Description

Pair of vintage Hollywood Regency style lamps in lucite and bronze from the 60s and 70s. Very beautiful pair of large size, total height 70 cm, imposing by their presence and their excellent quality whether for the parts gilded bronze with fine gold or the structure in transparent lucite. Very soft light thanks to the original lampshades and the reflections diffused by the gilded and translucent elements. Note the very good original condition for the lamp bases for the gilded barrels as well as the lucite elements. In summary, very beautiful pair to be positioned in symmetry in a beautiful classic or modern interior. Possibility of sending in France and around the world by secure and insured package. Invoice and certificate provided.
