George Nakashima style design sofa from the late 20th century. Furniture carved in walnut and exotic wood from the famous line of the American designer / architect. Reproduction of excellent quality with characteristics similar to the original except for the presence of the through inserts of the legs on the seat (see photo).

Fabulous amphitheater back with wooden supports without breaks (see photo). Furniture for antique dealers and interior decorators, ideal for indoor use, with a considerable weight and excellent solidity. It has small signs of wear, overall in a good state of conservation. Seat height 48 cm.
