Description

By Emile Puiforcat, very elegant ice cream service in solid silver and vermeil. Twelve spoons accompany the ice cream cutlery, the latter consisting of a shovel and its serving spoon.

These fourteen pieces are discreetly threaded and leafy on their contours. Under a garland of leaves and fruits, a monogram with the initials J and B is engraved on the faces of the spatulas. Normal micro-scratches from use. The original vermeil is light but very regular. Each of the pieces is stamped with the hallmark of the goldsmith (EP, a penknife) Emile Puiforcat, La Coutellerie, 18, rue Chapon in Paris (stamped in 185th) as well as that of the French guarantee Minerva's head 1st title (950/1000). The complete set, for twelve guests, is presented in its original case, the interior covered in beige silk (numerous oxidation
