PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Tebako Box With Hibiscus, Maki-e Lacquer, Japan, Meiji Era (1868-1912).

220 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Painted wood

Length : 20,5

Width : 15,5

Height : 6,5

Description

Wooden tebako box covered with gold lacquer decoration and the maki-e method of sprinkling metal particles on the still wet lacquer. The decoration depicts hibiscus flowers (which, because they bloom from July to October, are a symbol of resistance and vitality) and aquatic plants.

Length 20.5 cm, width 15.5 cm, height 6.5 cm.

Japan, Meiji era (1868-1912).

Relatively good condition, with minor losses and friction.

Free shipping within EU. ! I send parcels by insured mail (DPD or DHL). All items are packed

Dealer

Galerie la Belle Epoque
Antiquaire généraliste
Tel : +48 601852083

Bukowska 17
Poznan 60193

very carefully. Payment by international bank transfer.