Axe Woodwork

18 000 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Description

Louis XV woodwork facade comprising a pair of bookcases, open at the top and with doors at the bottom, a fireplace and a trumeau. This trumeau comes from a private mansion in Grenoble, located opposite the Hache cabinetmakers' workshop. The whole is made of lime wood. The interior boxes of the bookcases are made of medium. All of the woodwork is from the 20th century, except for the trumeau which is from the 18th century. Usual restorations.Dimensions: Height: 297 cm + cornice Width of bookcase: 2 x 120 cm Width of glazing beads: 4 x 28 cm Width of fireplace and trumeau: 145 cmRef. A2988

Dealer

Remy Motte
Antiquités Décoration
Tel : 03 20 89 88 91

202, Rue Jean Jaurès
Villeneuve d'Ascq 59 491