

Russian Silver-gilt Brooch With Smoky Topaz

220 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Silver metal

Description

This exquisite Russian silver-gilt brooch features a central smoky topaz stone, set in a sleek bar design. Presented in its original box, the brooch bears hallmarks indicating that it was crafted in the 1950s. Russian craftsmen have long been renowned for their exceptional skill in cutting precious gemstones, and this piece is no exception. The topaz is masterfully cut, with facets that catch the light beautifully, reflecting different hues depending on the angle and background. Dark-toned clothing will particularly enhance the brilliance and allure of this smoky topaz. The brooch measures 5.35 cm in length, and the topaz, at 14.3 mm in diameter, weighs approximately 9 carats. It comes in its original and elegantly designed box, making it a stunning and sophisticated gift for someone special. Please

Dealer

Gillers Antiques

Specialists in 19th-century European silverware, porcelain and décor

Mobile : +44 7738009924

Buntingford SG9 0PY

study the accompanying photographs carefully, as they form an integral part of this description. The item will be shipped with full tracking and insurance. Shipping costs include labor, packaging, and postage.