

Shako Of Officer Aide-de-camp Of Horse Hunters, Model 1874, Third Republic.

1 400 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Linen

Description

SHAKO OF OFFICER AIDE-DE-CAMP OF HORSE-HUNTERS, model 1874, Third Republic. 27994 In cardboard covered with sky blue cloth, bordered on the upper part with a 2.8 cm high braid, woven in Hungarian stitch called "lizard braid" in silver braid; bourdalou in black patent leather; hunting horn, symbol of the weapon, in gilded brass, H 2.7 cm, width 4.8 cm. Cockade in tinplate stamped with a radiant sun, tricolor lacquered, on which is fixed a square braid with double strand in silver braid held by a smooth gilded half-spherical button. On the sides, air vents in painted steel in the color of the background cloth. Chin strap with gilded brass curb chain lined with black velvet; on the sides and back of the headdress, at the level of the braid and the bourdalous, three gilded metal lion heads

Dealer

Bertrand Malvaux

Expert agréé par la CNES Chambre Nationale des Experts
Spécialisés

Tel : 02 40 73 36 00

Mobile : 06 07 75 74 63

22 rue Crébillon

Nantes 44000

hold the chin strap; round visor, top in black patent leather circled with a gilded brass rush folded astride the outer edge, width of the visor 4.5 cm; underside of the visor in green waxed leather. Inner headdress composed of a black patent leather headband decorated with a gilded frieze at the top. Interior of the headdress in fine ivory canvas. Black patent leather chin strap fixed to the inside of the frame by means of two half-bell brass buttons. Plume in drooping rooster feathers, H 20 cm, dyed blue, mounted on a steel wire folded in two with olive pompom in silver cannetilles. France. Third Republic. Very good condition, silver trimmings slightly oxidized, plume very slightly sunned.