Description

Very elegant Louis XVI style coffee table resting on four tapered and fluted legs ending in brass sabots. The belt is decorated with quarter-round gilded threads. The top is covered with Havana-colored leather decorated with a pretty central motif and a large circular frieze made with fine gold. Our charming pedestal table opens in the middle and reveals a set of slides and two additional small removable feet to accommodate and support possible extensions. We would like to point out that this pedestal table is sold without extensions. This piece of furniture is in very good condition, although there are some small traces of use on the leather (see last photos). Beautiful mid-20th century manufacture in beech wood with a fruitwood finish. Dimensions: height: 75 cm, diameter of the top 100 cm Available length
