Description

Very beautiful art nouveau lamp with a tulip engraved Muller and a wrought iron foot by Louis Van Boeckel, both decorated with oak leaves and acorns. High quality lamp with very beautiful ironwork, characteristic of the work of the illustrious Belgian ironworker. What work, what finesse, we find all the codes of his work. This foot is associated with a very beautiful tulip cleared with acid, also decorated with oak leaves and acorns. A multitude of bright colors and a beautiful finesse of engraving which makes this lamp as beautiful on as off. Everything is in perfect condition, 34.5 cm high, perfect, works with plug and zepilin button in bakelite. A must of art nouveau
