Description

Two perfume bottles and a powder bowl

Hand painted porcelain,

19th century (Napoleon III period)

Good condition

perfume bottles : 17.3 and 16.8 cm (6.81 and 6.61 inches) height, depth: 4 cm (1.57 inches) powder bowl : 10 cm (3.93 inches) in height and 10 cm (3.93 inches) in diameter.

Please note: there is a small hairline crack on the cap, a minor flaw caused during the firing process, reflecting the ancient artisanal methods.

There is also a slight chip on one of the bottles (see photos). Despite these imperfections, the set remains in good condition and is a rare opportunity for antique and history enthusiasts.

Ideal for enhancing a collection or adding a timeless touch of elegance to your interior décor.
