Description

Directoire Chest of Drawers from the 18th Century Vicenza in Walnut with Cherry Inlays
The Directoire chest of drawers from the 18th century Vicenza is a valuable example of ancient craftsmanship, meticulously made of walnut and adorned with delicate cherry wood inlays. This piece reflects the Directoire style, known for its understated elegance and clean lines, which greatly influenced furniture design from the late 18th century onwards.

Classic design and premium materials

The chest stands out for its combination of high-quality materials. The walnut wood, strong and durable, provides a solid base, while the cherry inlays add a touch of refinement and warmth to the furniture. Its elegant proportions, with a width of 131 cm, a depth of 55 cm, and a
