Description

Description /Gilded, shiny and matte bronze, marble. These beautiful candelabras consist of a round and conical base with three lion feet. This base is decorated with openwork consoles carrying garlands of fruit. A very discreet particularity of elegance: finely openwork reserves stand out on a marble or alabaster background included in the base. The Athenian shaft carries a very chiseled ball of friezes, and the three feet are also openwork with pearls. A twist carries the arms of lights in very striking plant volutes of this style. The central socket emerges from a sunflower flower. The photos "explain" as best as possible the richness of the decorative details of these lights served by a very elegant quality of chiseling and almost perfect gilding. Beautiful original condition, are not
