Description

Pair of 750/°° white gold (18 KT, owl hallmarks) sleeper earrings (pendants) in the shape of daisies, with round motifs decorated in their centers with Japanese Akoya cultured pearls. These are surrounded by a multitude of 8/8 cut diamonds set in individual round boxes, in a delicate and refined format, distributed over two rows. These setting boxes offer a lush and very graphic rendering on these nevertheless sober earrings. A top diamond, brilliant cut, worn on the ear serves as a support for the daisy, suspended and very mobile. Unlike classic sleepers, the rod/clasp system used here makes them extremely easy to handle. These earrings of Portuguese origin are presented in their original leather case. Diameter of Akoya cultured pearls: 6.9 / 7 mm Gross weight: 8.36 g Condition:
