Description
-------------

Large cauldron in red copper chiseled on all sides, from the Maghreb, Algeria.

From the 19th century, in very good condition and beautiful patina.

The deep chiseling represents friezes of plants, epigraphic decorations.

Two very thick copper fasteners support the hammered wrought iron handle.

A copper bead surrounds the perimeter.

You will find another cauldron in my gallery from Iran, also from the 19th century.

Dimensions: Height 18 cm, with the handle 33 cm, diameter 26 cm, width 29 cm
