Description

Very beautiful solid walnut wardrobe from the end of the 17th - beginning of the 18th century. Our amusing little wardrobe opens on the front with four doors distributed in two rows, two small drawers in the lower part complete the opening; Each door is carved with four triangular motifs in each of the corners, these frame a central diamond-shaped motif, all with heavily molded contours. The two sides are two-paneled, they are also worked and have the same motifs and moldings as the doors. This piece of furniture has been restored several times, in fact the shelves, locks, and lock entries were certainly changed in the middle of the 20th century. An older repair of use was carried out on the back of our piece of furniture at the level of the feet and its low rear crosspiece. This piece of furniture is in perfect
