Description

This small sofa has the particularity of having a foldable seat with a spacious compartment underneath that allows for storing objects. The sofa is antique, French from the Restoration period. The poufs are more recent, dating back to the early 1900s.

The restoration and upholstery are recent, with new silky velvet in a beautiful emerald green color; the striped linen fabric is antique (the latter has some small stains, see photos).

The whole set is in excellent condition.
